

New Hampshire Public Television Annual Report

A Year of Initiatives

YOU KNOW NHPTV for our engaging and excellent PBS and local television programs. Yet we also are growing as a public resource, one which connects quality television with community initiatives and multi-media technologies. These have enabled us to expand our reach throughout northern New England. Here are highlights from NHPTV's Fiscal Year 2007:

- LiveFIT NH, our community outreach initiative, received the Outstanding Achievement Award from the New Hampshire Governor's Council on Physical Activity and Health. Through a multi-part NH Outlook series, outreach activities, and online resources at nhptv.org/livefitnh, LiveFIT NH is helping to combat obesity trends.
- To enable access to our content anytime, more of our programs became available online. State education forums, the Governor's inauguration and his budget address also are available on our website.
- Our NH Votes 2008 coverage began. In addition to NH Outlook coverage of candidates and issues, we partnered with the Initiative for Corporate Responsibility and the NH Political Library to broadcast special forums and Politics and Eggs events.
- The Hanover-Dartmouth region began receiving NHPTV's signal on Channel 50 via a new digital transmitter.
- In conjunction with the premiere of Ken Burns' new World War II documentary, The War, NHPTV launched an initiative to connect and collect NH's war stories. We hosted a preview of the series in Concord, and Burns (a Walpole, NH, resident) spoke to the 900 attendees. NH Outlook aired a two-part special on NH's wartime experiences, and a student documentary project got underway.
- Celebrating students. Hanover High School earned its third Granite State SuperChallenge title. There were nearly 700 submissions to NHPTV's popular Reading Rainbow Young Writers and Illustrators Contest.
- Recognized for excellence. Our NH Outlook, Windows to the Wild, and Wildlife Journal programs cumulatively won 15 Telly awards and five Associated Press awards.
- PBS connections. In September, PBS President Paula Kerger met with supporters in Bedford, Peterborough and Nashua. And in June, Judy Woodruff of The NewsHour was on the Seacoast to talk about PBS election coverage and the impact of "Generation Next."

Thank you for your continued support and involvement this past year, and for making it possible for New Hampshire Public Television to engage minds, connect communities and celebrate New Hampshire.

– Peter A. Frid
CEO and General Manager
