PRAISE

"I believe in public television. It has introduced me to many of my mentors and heroes not to mention the entertainment. I raised my kids on PBS. I trust its content to be intelligent. I cannot sit by and watch it slip into history."
Karen S.

"NHPBS provides educational TV for my children that I can feel good about them watching. It's the only channel my kiddos watch because I know that everything is appropriate and enriching for them. Thanks NHPBS!"
