This season features complex puzzles, witty match-ups, arch enemies, and of course, complicated murder mysteries. Airs Saturday 5/19 & 5/26 at 8 p.m.

NH TOP PICKS

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE: JESSE OWENS

The most famous athlete of his time, his stunning triumph at the 1936 Olympic Games captivated the world even as it infuriated the Nazis. But when the four-time Olympic gold medalist returned home, he could not even ride in the front of a bus. The story of the 22-year-old son of a sharecropper who triumphed over adversity to become a hero and world champion, Jesse Owens is also about the elusive, fleeting quality of fame and the way Americans idolize athletes when they suit our purpose, and forget them once they don't. Airs 5/2 @ 10 p.m.

CIVILIZATION: THE WEST & THE REST WITH NIALL FERGUSON

Discover how the West reached economic prosperity and how many Eastern nations are catching up. Based on Ferguson's best-selling book, he explains his theory of the West developing six "killer applications" which the East lacked: competition, science, modern medicine, democracy, consumerism and work ethic. But has the West lost its monopoly on these principles?

Airs 5/25 @ 9 p.m.

BONES OF TURKANA

Famed paleoanthropologist Richard Leakey and his family travel to Kenya's Turkana Basin to unravel the mysteries of human evolution. They are determined to prove how the qualities that we proudly call human were all born in Africa. Airs 5/21 @ 10 p.m.

AMERICAN MASTERS: JOHNNY CARSON

Explore the career, complexities, and contradictions of television's biggest star through unprecedented access to personal and professional archives. Past guests on "The Tonight Show" shed light on his far-reaching legacy.
